

Growth Enrichment Seminars (GES)

An Invitation to a

CURRICULUM REFRESHER COURSE

(with emphasis on Science and Mathematics)

Morning sessions:

Curriculum in the 21st Century
Cognitive and Psycho-social Theories
Curricular Methodologies
Curriculum Design

Afternoon sessions:

Workshops on
Science for Growing Minds
Experiencing and Integrating Mathematics
(for preschool and elementary levels)

GERMELINA V. LISING-SALUMBIDES

Curriculum and Staff Development Officer, THE LEARNING TREE

A.B. English, Maryknoll College
Montessori Certificate, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Teaneck, New Jersey
M.S. Education, Bank Street College, NY, NY
Docent Training Program: Museum of Nebraska Art, University of Nebraska, Kearney
Visual Understanding in Education, Philip Yenawine, (Museum of Modern Art) NY

Mrs. CRISTINA D. ARCE

Mathematics Facilitator, THE LEARNING TREE Grade School

B.S. Mathematics, U.P.
M.A. Education, Curriculum and Instruction, U.P.
Writer for Math Journals, Math Coach & Curriculum Developer on Experiential-Integrative Math

Mr. RYAN M. NOLEAL

Science Classes Facilitator, THE LEARNING TREE Grade School

B. Elementary Education, Science and Health, U.P.
Immediate Past President, Philippine Society of Youth Science Clubs, Inc.

April 27-30, 2009 (Monday to Thursday) 8:15 am sharp-4 pm
THE LEARNING TREE PRESCHOOL
238 Ermin Garcia cor. La Salle Street, Cubao, Quezon City

Fees: P2,000/day or P5,000 Whole Course (registration, certificate, snack and lunch)
Due to limited space, participants will be received on a First Come, First served basis

For slot reservations, please call Teacher Norie 912-5102 or Text Teacher Fe 09178145633
(On-site registrations will be received from 7:15-8 am)

